UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

Ben Sheffield of Montana, well known as a guide to hunting parties visiting the Rocky Mountains, has rigged up a camera attachment to his rifle and now has many excellent pictures of wild animals in their native haunts. Some of the photos were made at the instant of the firing of the rifle, and as Sheffield is a crack shot the result is interesting.

Many a fair young child, whose father has puzzled the mother until she has suspected rightly her darling was troubled with worms, has regained the rosy hue of health with a few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge. Price 25 cents. J. James Wood & Son.

The number of immigrants to the United States averages 7,000 a day.

A claim of $25,000 has been filed against a telegraph company at Gardiner, Me., for the non-delivery of a message which resulted in a murder.

At a recent election in Hays City, Kan., a ticket composed of boys was run against the old men, and the boys won by a handsome majority.

Sixty-eight aliens who were excluded from the Atlin gold region have brought suit against the Canadian Government for $15,000, 000 damages.

Plans have been perfected for the reclaiming of fifty acres of land from Lake Erie for the Ohio Centennial Exposition, to be held in Toledo in 1902.

After July 1 Lake Front Park in Chicago will be called U. S. Grant Park. The change is made by state law enacted at the request of the G. A. R.

The improvements that are to transform League Island, Philadelphia, into a model Navy yard are being pushed forward as rapidly as possible.

The coaling station to be established at the Charleston Naval Station to supply United States warships will have bunkers capable of holding 15,000 tons of coal.

Rev. Dr. Wesley Reid Davis of New York unwittingly overrode his bank account and was arrested in Washington charged with passing a worthless check.

Dr. Shelton is about to sail for Alaska, where he will replenish the Government reindeer herds, a large number of which have been killed by the natives for food.

A Kentucky farmer owns a mule which has, in some unknown manner, acquired the tobacco chewing habit, and it will not work unless it is regularly provided with its quid.

The tallest man in the Navy has been selected to take the part of Uncle Sam in the Peace Jubilee, to be held in Washington next month—Chief Yeoman Willis, who stands 6 feet 7 inches in his bare feet.

A warranty deed for an eighty-acre tract of mineral land in Jasper county, Mo., which was recently filed with the Recorder at Carthage, bore revenue stamps aggregating $344. The price paid for the land was $344,000.

The Arkansas Supreme Court has decided that a man cannot execute a jury duty because he has not paid his poll tax. Heretofore the fact that a man had failed or has refused to pay poll tax has excluded him from such service.

Richard Metcalf, residing near Chesterfield, in the vicinity of Carlisle, Ill., shot a magnificent specimen of the American grey eagle. The bird measured 7 feet from tip to tip of wings and was 70 feet above ground when brought down.

The Episcopal Ministers of Kansas City adopted a resolution protesting against the recent christening of a baby orange-oung at the Zoo in that city. The resolution denounces the act as a "travesty of the Christian sacrament of baptism."

U. S. Grant, Jr., of California, who was recently a candidate for United States Senator before the Legislature of that state, is an exact counterpart of his illustrious father, not only in face and form, but in voice, manner and peculiar traits of character.

A pillmaker in England, who spends $5,000,000 a year on newspaper advertising alone, has given his published orders for 7,000,000 books, each of which is to contain twenty-four photographic views of England. The price to the public is to be a penny a copy.

Samuel Tarwater, who died at his home in Ray county, Mo., a few days ago, aged 96, had long enjoyed the distinction, owing to a serious wound received in the Mormon War, of being Missouri's only state pensioner. He had been married three times, and was the father of seventeen children.

KENTUCKY FLASHES.

Thinks His Son Alive.
STURGIS, Ky., May 15.—A letter just received from Corporal J. C. Wilson, of the 5th Georgia, U. S. V., states that the regiment has reached New York, and that the Kentucky boys who were recruited from Sturgis will soon reach home—excepting Corporal Jos. Davis, who died of typhoid fever at Santiago on April 23. Mr. Davis' aged father is lying on his deathbed and has been waiting patiently for the return of his son, who he does not know is dead.

Church Struck By Lightning.
CARLISLE, Ky., May 15.—While a festival given by members of Moorefield Colored Methodist church was in progress lightning struck the building, breaking dishes and upsetting the tables. Several persons were hurt, but none seriously. About the same time, and only a few yards away, lightning struck a tree under which 25 head of sheep were sheltered, killing every one of them.

Groom of a Week Killed.
WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., May 15.—Guy Williams was accidentally killed by the discharge of a shotgun in his own hands. He was loading the gun, preparatory to going hunting, when the gun went off. He was married last week to Miss Edna May Castleman. Just one year ago his bride's father was thrown from a horse at this place, and died in a few hours from his injuries.

A Lucky Kentuckian.
VERMILION, Ky., May 15.—Mr. James R. Bond, of this county, who went to British Columbia last year, writes to relatives here that he has an interest in gold mines there which he expects to yield him a fortune. He says that some of the strikes that have been made in this territory within the past year are of such magnitude as to astound the oldest and most experienced mining experts.

State Auditor Stone Was Retitled.
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—State Auditor Sam Stone was in Lexington Sunday morning. He was interrogated as to his intentions with reference to the announcement that he will soon become a candidate for the republican gubernatorial nomination. He was very reticent, however, and left the impression that he was in no hurry to shy his castor into the ring.

On the Way to Apia.
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—In response to a cablegram from Auckland, New Zealand, James H. Mulligan, former United States general to Samoa, left Saturday for Apia, where he will appear before the joint high commission of the powers to represent the interests of planters and business men of the island.

Traveling Men's Convention.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—C. R. Duffin, of Indiana; Sam P. Jones, of Louisville, and L. N. Latate, of Montgomery, Ala., are candidates for president of the National Traveling Men's Protective association, which convenes here Tuesday. Virginia and Louisiana want the next convention.

Things Looking Ominous in the Transvaal.
PARIS, Ky., May 15.—Lord Salisbury is sounding France and Germany to ascertain if they will abstain from intervention if England finds it necessary to take active measures against the Transvaal. The Eclair believes that both France and Germany will give the required guarantee.

Will Not Make the Race.
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—Mr. Richard P. Stoll, of this city, who has been so frequently and so flatteringly spoken of as a republican candidate for governor, will not make the race. His business interests demand all his time.

The Mayor's Salary Attached.
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—An attachment suit has been filed against Mayor Simrall by Prof. A. H. Gordon, of Allegheny academy, this county, for $163.23, and he prays that the mayor's salary be not paid over to him until the judgment is satisfied.

Several Smallpox Cases at Shelbyville.
SHELBYVILLE, Ky., May 15.—Several cases of smallpox were discovered here. Prompt and efficient action was taken by the officials and all cases sent to the pesthouse. There is no danger of an epidemic.

Candidate for Senator.
MOREHEAD, Ky., May 15.—Rev. L. E. Mann, a Methodist minister of this place, has announced himself a candidate for state senator, subject to the action of the democratic convention, which meets at Owingsville May 24.

Belmonts in Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont arrived in the city Sunday night and have engaged a box at the race course for Monday afternoon.

Ragland Was Named.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 15.—W. H. Ragland was nominated at a mass convention as the democratic candidate for the legislature from Jefferson county.

Smallpox at Brighton.
LEXINGTON, Ky., May 15.—Three cases of smallpox at the little town of Brighton, this county, have been taken to the Lexington pest house.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 15.—The gunboat Nashville will steam up the Ohio as far as this city. She will be met by a committee of citizens.
